“ I know God is always in control and even though this is extremely difficult for each and everyone of us, it is our duty to the Lord to step it up and unite during this difficult time. That would make Rev. Beers smile down from heaven and I plan to make him proud of me. Take Care Sister Beers and family and I know that God will definitely take care of each and everone of you.

“ I've known Bro Beers since I was a teen-ager. My oldest children started at Salem Park Academy, he's been a close friend for four decades. It was a tremendous shock Monday morning to learn of his passing. May God's presence be with Sr Beers and the family in these traumatic days.

“ Needless to say it was a shock learning of Bro. Beers, one of my mentors, and dear friend suddenly being called 'HOME'. I will always remember the wonderful times sitting under his leadership and ministry. Our family always admired him and appreciated the years attending Salem Park Church and Academy. I deeply appreciated his candor and spiritual leadership and counseling. It goes without saying, he was a true Gentlemen and a Scholar. In addition to honoring him for his devotion to Christ I would be ungrateful if I didn't express my deep appreciation for his passion for health and welfare and great nutrition! He was an invaluable source of information and certainly I "owe him my life" when it comes to great health advice. As many of my friends know, I often referred to him as "Dr. Beers." Doubtless, his vast knowledge in the field of nutrition far exceeded many 'doctors' of the day! In fact, just in the past couple of months we have communicated countless times— discussing health issues. (Thank you, Sister Beers for your patience in relaying messages seeking counsel from your wonderful, patient, and devoted husband, even sometimes late at night!) In fact I have had virtually no serious health problems since I started following some of his recommendations and advice the past 3 or 4 years. The bottom line, Bro. Beers leaves a great heritage for his family. May the Lord comfort all of you enduring the loss, but taking courage knowing Heaven has gained.

“ Dear Jesus, We pray a special prayer of comfort all the whole Beers/Dubbeld family as they grieve the loss of a father, husband and grandfather. Be near and help us to think about the rejoicing he is doing in heaven. Amen. (Another saint to enter the heavenly choir with our own dear mother!)

“ We will always cherish the years we spent at Salem Park. Bro. Beers was pastor, teacher, mentor, confidant, and friend to our family, and "Grandpa Beers" to our children. While heaven is richer at his passing, our lives have also been enriched immeasurably by the years that we shared together. Our prayer is that in your time of loss you will find that "underneath are the everlasting arms of a loving heavenly Father who cares and understands."

“ Sis Beers and family, so sorry to have learned the news of Bro Beers passing. However, we rejoice that he is in Heaven today. I so appreciated his example and was always challenged in his classes at UBC (UBS at that time). I know there is an empty place in your heart, but take it from one who has been there, God will be there for you and will sustain you through it all.
