

Jonathan Wayne Covert

January 13, 1975 - August 12, 2018

Jonathan Wayne Covert, 43, of Ridgeville, suddenly and unexpectedly went home to be with his Lord on the afternoon of Sunday, August 12, 2018 at St. Vincent Randolph Hospital in Winchester.

He was born on January 13, 1975 in Terre Haute, Indiana, the first of four boys to Wayne and Diana (McCune) Covert.

Jonathan grew up as a preacher's kid and lived in Farmersburg, In, Jamesville, NC, Hagerstown, IN, and Winchester, IN. As a boy, he loved basketball, baseball, boy scouts, and frog giggering in a North Carolina swamp. He made many friends wherever he went. Jonathan married the love of his life, Rebecca Wambach, on February 20, 1999. He graduated from Winchester High School and completed his Computer Aided Drafting degree at Vincennes University. He had worked for LW Clinton (formerly RW Clinton) in Richmond for 19 plus years then joined Performance Services in Indianapolis working as a project manager. He loved his Lord Jesus and ministered to hundreds of young people. He was Chairman of CYM of Friends Youth Camp for 21 years. Jonathan served as Youth Pastor for 18 years at Randolph Friends Church.

Those left to cherish Jonathan's memory include his wife of 19 years, Rebecca Covert; three children, Emily, Josiah, and Clare; his parents, Wayne and Diane Covert of Winchester; three brothers, Tim (Crystal) Covert of Markleville, Ben (Betsy) Covert of Ewart, MI and Nathan (Christa) Covert of Daleville and many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts and uncles.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 am Saturday, August 18, 2018, at Randolph Friends Church, 6531 N. 300 W. Ridgeville, Indiana, with Pastor Jonathan Edwards officiating. Burial will follow in Jericho Cemetery.

Friends may call from 4 - 8 pm Friday at the church.

“Flowers fade but the Word of God will live forever.” In lieu of flowers, if you would like to offer a gift in Jonathan’s memory of $5.00 to Gideon’s International it will purchase a Bible that can bring life to the world. You may donate at <https://www2.gideons.org/donate>.

Thank you!

Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Sproles Family Funeral Home in New Castle. You may send the family a personal condolence at www.sprolesfamilycares.com.

The Sproles family and staff are honored to serve the family of Jonathan Covert.

“ I just started working for Jon this spring at the Belmont School project. I appreciated his leadership and guidance. He was a man of integrity. I know he loved construction and especially the "doing" parts. It was not unusual to see him cleaning up and getting his hands dirty. Taking care of details. On Saturday, he told me he preferred working on the jobsite as opposed to drafting or doing CAD work. Otherwise, "I wouldn't have the opportunity to work alongside electrician's named Herb". We had a good laugh, Herb was there working too. When I left the job that day, Jon was out putting up the signs to provide direction and guidance -- seems appropriate.

I see he was a tremendous man and wish I could have gotten to know him better. My condolences to his family and team at PSI.

“ Dear Rebecca, children, Wayne and Diane.
I can't imagine how you must hurt now and the huge loss you must feel. I wish I had words of wisdom and healing to give but I don't. I can only pray that our Lord will provide comfort. Healing and love to sustain all of you now and in days to come . It will be so difficult.
Hold on to the many memories you have of, and with. Jonathan for no one or nothing can EVER take those from you.
Again, I'm so very sorry for your loss.
My love and prayers,
Mark Enyart

“ Rebecca and children, my deep sympathy and prayers go out to you. Your husband and father made all people around him better. Jon was a dedicated man, living out his Christian calling with integrity, sincere humility, a quiet sense of humor, and a desire for knowing more so that he could serve more. Jon’s professional ministry was an extension of his faith, and it seems that in all his service, he modeled Colossians 3:23-24: “Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for human masters, since you know that you will receive an inheritance from the Lord as a reward. It is the Lord Christ you are serving.”
May God comfort, keep, and bless each of you, George Clinton (R.W. Clinton)

“ My prayers go out to the family of this wonderful man of God. I remember being at central friends during my years traveling for hobe sound where I met brother covert. I admired his passion for his youth group and for the youth camp. He made that youth camp special, and I always requested to go there. I looked up to him as a great example of a man who lived out his faith. I will continue to pray for his family, friends, and his youth group

“ One of my first memories of "Covert" was at Friends camp. Him and Becca were walking from the dorms and I was walking towards them. He had a broom in his hand and said "Hey Kim I have your ride for you!" He had the biggest grin on his face and I started laughing right away. Poor Becca was so embarrassed that he said it. But I've never forgotten it and still laugh to this day about it. :D When he asked me to help at youth camp, I was so honored and look forward to working with the team every year. After hearing the news that he was now in Heaven, I looked at Don and said "You know when Jason saw him arrive in Heaven, he yelled COVERT and ran and gave him the biggest HUG" My thoughts and prayers are with his precious wife, my dear dear friend Becca and her wonderful children and of course the whole family!!!
