“ I did not know Mary, but I recently bought a book written by her at a thrift shop in New Castle, IN. I started reading the book just a couple days ago, then decided to look up the author, and that's when I found Mary's obituary. Though I am only on page 15 of Mary's book so far, I have already been so blessed by the lessons she put into the sweet stories, and I plan to read these to my granddaughter as she grows up, so she can learn about the love of God! I'm sorry about the passing of Mary. She must have been a very special Christian woman who loved the Lord with all her heart! Her legacy will live on in the hearts of future generations! Angela

“ I met Mary Louise Root Cowan through her son, Bob Root when I was coaching basketball at Kansas City College and Bible School, and later had the privilege of meeting most of her family.
She was a very special person and had a wonderful testimony for the Lord. She was also an inspiration to me at a difficult time of my life.
Thank you, Mary.

“ Bro. and Sis. Cowen were our high school class sponsors and organized our senior trip to Florida. We so appreciated their dedication to helping our class to have a positive experience on that trip. I still have a coin collection that they gave me when they had our class over to their home for breakfast one morning.

Bro. Cowen, we are sorry for your loss and will keep you in our prayers.

“ I had the greatest pleasure of meeting Mary when she came to Addison Place. Oh what a joy she was to me and our staff. I enjoyed my morning talks with her and her wisdom she shared with me. She helped me with preparations for my activities. I will miss her smiles and know deep in my heart she will be one of my most treasured guardian Angels now. RIP sweet friend! Prayers of comfort going up for all of the family.

“ My memories are endless! She introduced herself as "Ma" and has been ever since. I don't know how many wonder meals I ate at her table! She wasn't just Mary's mom. She told me many times I was one of her girls. She was the Best example of what a God loving, God serving, person should be. I am so honored & so Blessed to have known & been loved by this dear woman & family. I miss her already, but know she is rejoicing in Heaven. I can see her & Mary sitting on the piano bench playing & singing together again! She will always be special to me & live on in my heart! Love & prayers to Kenny, her children, & grand children as they learn to live without her loving spirit daily. Pami

“ Dear, sweet, Sis. Mary Cowen was my mentor and dear friend during my college years. She and Kenny continued to mentor my husband Michael and me during our early years of marriage. I've always appreciated Sis. Cowen's faithful example of being a Jesus-follower by speaking truth in love, caring for and about people, and doing what God calls us to. Her care for me made a huge difference to this shy, insecure teenager so long ago, and I've missed being able to interact with her more as I've experienced life's challenges. May God comfort Bro. Kenny and continue to guide and lead him as he grieves the loss of this wonderful woman.

“ Dear Kenny, Carol and Phil, Bob and Natalie and family. Your loss is Heaven's gain. May God bless and keep you during this time of mourning sister Cowen's loss. She was a great spiritual inspiration to me for all the years that I have known her. John shares the same feelings that I do a sister Cowan. Through her testimonies I learned how to persevere through difficulties I learned how to trust God and lean on him why was at its toughest, and that I could have joy and peace in my heart through great tribulations I also learned so much more from her I loved her sweet spirit hi rejoiced and she rejoice I wept with her she wept. What a wonderful godly gentle woman that she was John and I both have many memories of our time with her and Kenny and the rest of of her family. Please remember it is not a goodbye for us it is so long until we meet again which We Will. God bless you all and remember that John and I are praying for you every day. Love and Prayer's, Bev. and John Crull
