“ Well, my beautiful cousin who was like a sister to me. I can't believe you left us at 38 years old. You touched so many hearts, mine especially. I can remember when we were just kids and I stayed at the house, we always stayed up late watching our shows; I Love Lucy, Andy Griffith, And many more. I will never forget the day that I stayed the night in that spare bed in your bedroom. I would have nightmares or just bad dreams and you would wake up and just comfort me reminding me that it's all going to be ok. Deanie, you were always smiling and a ray of sunshine. Anytime I was having a bad day, you were one of the many that I would call and you would do everything in your power to cheer me up. I can remember when we met especially on Christmas Eve and you and I would sit on that loveseat, that was our seat. When we met with Pastor John, I sat there and kept looking over to see you sitting there but you weren't. It just kills me not seeing you in that spot but I know you are in a better place. You are gone but will never be forgotten. FOREVER & ALWAYS IN OUR HEARTS SIS! You were taken too soon. Not enough time with you but just the right time for God. Sis, your work on earth is done. You have truly earned your angel wings. You will Always be our Guardian Angel! I love you Sis!
Your Cousin who was like a Brother,
Michael Caldwell

“ Deanie, your smile will always be in my heart, I will always remember your laughter. I am so proud that you followed your heart in everything you loved, your PHD in all things Elvis was amazing, your passion for Star trek and your love for your facebook friends, but I have always been impressed by the way you took care of your Mama...that daily cup of freshly brewed coffee at her bedside each day meant more than you will ever know. All that knew you, know their lives were better because you were with them if only for a little while. My life was better because of knowing you. Love you! Debbie

“ My Baby Girl is in HEAVEN with JESUS now. I was blessed to have her with me for 38 years, 4 months, and 1 week. It was not long enough for me, but it was the perfect amount of time for GOD. Adinah was given to this world to be a bright shining smiling face for all who came in contact with her.

Sissy, your work on earth is done. I know you are in heaven, and on the way, I am sure you went to RAINBOW BRIDGE where John Boy met you, and then after lots of kisses, you crossed Rainbow Bridge into heaven together.

I love you and miss you, my beautiful Smiling Baby Girl.

*Love and Kisses,
Momser*
