

Beatrice Lucille Hughett

June 6, 1932 - March 19, 2021

Beatrice Lucille Bowling Hughett (“Granny”) was born in Robbins, Tennessee on June 6, 1932. She went home to the loving arms of Jesus on March 19, 2021. She passed peacefully, surrounded by her loved ones. She was preceded in death by her father, Wilbert Bowling, mother, Dorothy Smithers Bowling, and her brother, Dellis Bowling.

She was married to the late William Murl Hughett on February 16, 1952. They were married for forty years. They had 6 children, 12 grandchildren, 15 great-grandchildren, and several nieces, nephews and cousins. She adored them all. She cared deeply and selflessly for her family. She was, and still is, loved “a bushel and a peck, with a hug around the neck.”

She gave her heart to Jesus at the age of 14 and was baptized at the West Robbins church. She lived her life for Christ and His love could be seen in her by all who met her. She loved to attend church services, revivals, singings, and prayer meetings. Over the years, she has been a beloved sister in Christ to several congregations. She has attended many services with her friends and family at New Castle Church of Christ, and has been part of the congregation of Northside Church of God in New Castle for several years. She loved to spend time with her family and many friends. It has often been said, “To know her is to love her.”

“ Beatrice was one of sweetest, kindest and most loving person I have ever known. She always made you feel special anytime you saw her, and never forgot to tell you how much she loved you. I am praying for her family that God will comfort and bless them all during the time of sorrow. She will be missed, but just as God has promised, we will meet again in Heaven. What a glad reunion day that will be!

“My dear sweet Granny went to her Heavenly home surrounded by family, and wrapped in love, as the the angels welcomed her home. I know she is praising Jesus and having quite the homecoming. She fought hard. It was her way. Her sweet, soft, gentle, and very stubborn way. Her stubbornness and will to fight brought her through 88 years and countless health conditions. Tiny, yet strong, her faith and her strength conquered each trial on her path. This time, God was ready to bring her home.

My Granny was the kindest person I've ever known. She was generous, loving, strong, and boy, did she love her family and her Jesus. She was the very definition of a Godly woman, and a true lady. I would often tell her that I want to be more like her. And she would say, "Oh honey, I'm just an old hillbilly." That was her personality, she had no idea how wonderful she truly was (even though we all told her often).

She has been a huge part of my life for as long as I can remember. She was there for every major event, and the simple everyday things too. Weddings, graduations, and impromptu lunches in the park, and Little Debbie's on the porch. She's always been there. I'll miss that terribly.

From my childhood to her final breaths, she, mom and I have had a special bond. We would tease that the three of us take turns being Lucy and Ethel. She was always up for whatever adventure we could think of. We would always manage to get ourselves into some Lucy worthy "adventures," and we would laugh and laugh.

I know she loved me so. She told me often. She was always so excited when I would come to see her or take her out, or when I was younger and she would get me to spend the day with her. She was one of my biggest supporters in life and was proud of my accomplishments. She was always supportive of my choices, just as I was of hers. We thought a lot alike. We just "got" each other. Kindred spirits.

I can't describe the emotion I feel right now. I know without a doubt, she is rejoicing in Heaven. If anyone earned her crown, it's this special lady. But a piece of my heart went with her. A big piece. My life will never quite be the same without her. I'll see her in every little simple thing. This moment, that brings a tear to my eye. I know that in time, it will bring a smile to my lips as I recall the countless happy memories with my Granny.

Granny, I love you a Bushel and a Peck with a Hug Around the Neck. Until we meet again in Heaven, I will think of you always and pray to be more like you.
