“ My heartfelt prayers and condolences to the family of Brad Catron.

I heard the news of Brad's passing, along with my heartfelt sorrow, I could not stop thinking of all the fun we had teasing each other about a story of music (those familiar know what I am talking about). It was how we greeted each other when we would be at the same place.

I called him one time very upset about a police matter and he calmly and humorously talked me into a place of laughter and calm, while assuring me he would address the issue.

Just two weeks ago, I was telling a friend here in DC, that I was going to call him and ask if I could use him as a reference for a part-time job at a police station in Virginia. My procrastination had me miss an opportunity to laugh again with Brad.

I say this, because life is short.... talk, love, hug, and shower to the extreme those you think about, pray for, and love ...friends, family, work associates, with love, positive thoughts, and conversation, because not one day is promised to any of us.

For the many family and friends who knew him far longer and were closer than I, again, I pray for your peace and comfort.

I feel extremely blessed and privileged for the time I knew, worked with and laughed with Brad.

May God Bless and keep you!

When my husband and I got married Brad got us the tent, he got the limo, and drove me and my bridesmaids to the wedding. Scott and I will always remember the good times with him. From one law enforcement family to another - our heart breaks with the loss of one of our own. We had so much respect for Brad as a fellow officer, a loving husband, and father. We enjoyed our four wheeler trips with Brad and will always have good memories. Prayers to his family and co-workers. From, Randy & Christine Wright and family.

Lot's of history in a small town... Went to school together, double dated a few times (not each other), crazy times at basketball games in the ALFORD days, he bought Tyson's first four-wheeler from me (GODSPEED), he stood firm with the school kids and made a difference in many lives. You will be missed my friend, you were one who made a difference in the life of a child. His family and friends should stand PROUD! So sorry for the loss of a great Chief and friend!

He was very professional but yet always tried to make the situation a little better with his wise cracks and sense of humor and never once talked to me like a "suspect " I guess is the best way to put it and said he'd do everything he possibly could to help me and he stayed true to his word.*
