

Brenda K. Markgraf

April 23, 1943 - October 17, 2007

Brenda K. (Mabry) Markgraf, 64, of New Castle died Wednesday, October 17, 2007 in Ball Memorial Hospital following a brief illness.

She was born April 29, 1943 in Goldsboro, North Carolina, a daughter of James Daughtry Mabry and Naomi Ruth (Keen) Mabry.

She graduated from Goldsboro High School and enjoyed music, poetry, and art. Her High School music teacher was Andy Griffith. She founded and operated a wholesale toy company, The Toy Maker, Inc. in Philomath, OR and was a caregiver for the elderly in private care homes in California. She was a people person and loved her family and her pets.

She is survived by her step-mother who raised her, Leona (Peterson) Mabry of Goldsboro, NC; two sons, Brent Daughtry (wife: Lisa) Markgraf of New Castle and Bradford Arthur Markgraf of Lotus, CA; six grandchildren, Tosha Keen Reinmiller of Corvallis, OR, Vanna Lee Markgraf of Rockaway, OR, Hailei Morgan Markgraf of Placerville, CA, Leanna Page Markgraf of Sunrise Beach, TX, Crosby Joseph Markgraf of Placerville, CA, and twins, Dalton Bradford and Dakota Glen Markgraf of Placerville, CA; one great-grandson, Hunter Ryan Wolnez; a brother, James Daughtry Mabry Jr. of Kingston, NC and two sisters, Delores and Judy of North Carolina.

She was preceded in death by her father and her sister, Donna Kaye LePage in May, 2007.

As Brenda requested, services will be held privately by her family.

Arrangements are in the care of Sproles Family Funeral Home.