“Cally was like a sister to me. We spent many years of our youth living together and going on vacations together to Indian Lakes and Indiana Beach. As adults, we had dinners, cookouts and trips to Conner Prarie. She loved her boys and her family. The last message I sent her was the recipe for Hummingbird cake. The boys laughed at how Nicolas forgot the baking soda. But, I'm proud that they attempted to make her the cake. She baked herself one every year for her birthday. We will all miss Cally, but not as much as her boys.

“Cally was one of biggest female role models in my life growing up! I would get so confused why I was told she is my cousin, but I always called her ,”Aunt Cally.” I remember her always coming over to get fish that dad would catch and fry. She loved daddy’s fried fish! Ohhhhhh!! We can NOT forget the Christmas treats she would make EVERY SINGLE YEAR! She left way to soon! She will be missed by so many! Continue to pray for her children and grand baby! Cally loved her boys more then ANYTHING in this whole world! Rest up there, give everyone hugs from us! ❤️
