Carol enjoyed her flowers, playing piano, baking, scrapbooking and raising three boys. She was a faithful member of New Life Holiness Church where she served as Sunday School Treasurer, Piano player and directed Christmas programs and special events. “ How sorry I am to hear of Carol's passing! She was certainly a beautiful lady! I have a special memory of her of when I moved back to Indiana after the sudden passing of my husband. I had to go into the BMV to take care of some business and I had no idea that she worked there. When I walked in and saw her, it was a comfort and a blessing! She warmly greeted me and helped me through the paperwork while we reconnected and talked about our families! What a precious lady who will be missed greatly! Sending my prayers and sincere condolences! Esther (Dotson) Coner

“ My husband and I have gone to church with Carol and Phil for a long time and have greatly enjoyed their friendship and many memories together. My fondest memories of Carol is when she testified and sang at church. It was hard for her to testify without crying because she loves Jesus so much and Jesus is so dear to her that her sweet spirit would just flow out of her and the same as she was singing and she had the greatest infectious laugh oh that just made me laugh inside as she was laughing and there wasn't anything Carol wouldn't do for anybody so my condolences to Phil and all the family and remember it's not goodbye it's only so long my God bless you all love and prayers Bev and John Crull ❤️🙏
