

Carolyn S. Bennett

July 24, 1945 - July 10, 2009

Carolyn S. Bennett, 63, of Sulphur Springs, died Friday evening in Stonebrooke Rehabilitation Centre in New Castle following a brief illness. She was born July 24, 1945 in Spiceland, a daughter of the late Frank and Susie (Chew) Lawton.

Carolyn worked for Walmart for the past eight years in the fabric department and the cash office. She loved to sew and did alterations for many people over the years. She had also worked at Indiana Knitwear in Greenfield for 11 years. She had attended Ivy Tech where she studied business and computers. She enjoyed reading and visiting flea markets with her husband, James, but her greatest love was her family and especially her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband, James Bennett, whom she married on her birthday, July 24, 1964; a daughter, Angela Cornwell of Inwood, West Virginia; a son, Shawn E. Bennett of Martinsburg, West Virginia; four grandchildren, Jonathan (wife: Brandi) Jessee of Losantville, Chelsea (husband: Ryan) Loughmiller of Greenwood, Erik Ty Bennett of Martinsburg, West Virginia and Hunter Allan Bennett of Anderson; two sisters, Barbara Humes of New Castle and Melba Riley of Shirley; two brothers, Everett Lawton of Spiceland and Frank Lawton Jr. of New Castle; and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by two sisters, Leavera Hoover and Betty Purvis; and a brother, Clarence Lawton.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, July 14, 2009 at Sproles Family Funeral Home with Pastor Danny Douglas officiating. Burial will follow in Circle Grove Cemetery in Spiceland.

Friends may call from 4 – 8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home. You may send a personal condolence to the family at www.sprolesfamilycares.com.

“ I wish I could of been there. I didn't find out until the night before the funeral. There will be many times you'll pick up your phone to call your Momma and then all of a sudden you'll realize she's in Heaven. Go ahead and write a letter to her. That's what I did and it helped a lot. I'm with you in thoughts and prayers. I love you both and I'm praying for you. Go to dailystrength.org It really helped me. May God Bless and keep you in your time of loss. Again I'm truly sorry for your loss. No greater love is there than ones Momma. Except the love of Jesus Christ. He will be with you Always. I'm praying for you. Love Gretchen K
