“ Julie and I, along with our children wish to share our deepest condolences regarding the passing of Bro. Line. I regret that I am away preaching a revival in western Idaho, or we would be at the service. Bro. Line was a steady, faithful man of God. We join with you all, while feeling the loss of his passing, also celebrating his triumphant arrival into the eternal presence of Jesus. May the Lord bless and keep you all.

“ While Uncle Chuck is no longer with you his work on this earth will continue on. Well loved, well respected. Great character and a big heart. I love seeing all the pictures. Especially when he was young and so handsome and the wedding pictures are so filled with joy. Sending you my condolences and love.

“ I will always remember the times at Christmas when we would have family get togethers. And I would visit with all my Uncles and Aunts and cousins, especially the times around Grandpa and Grandma Line. They were the glue to the Line family. Also how proud I was telling people of my many pastoral and ministry family members I had serving our Lord. I love you Aunt Darlene and Uncle Chuck. RIH Uncle. Love Starla k Steuerwald (Line)
