

Clarence E. Edge

August 9, 1921 - July 4, 2013

Clarence E. Edge, 91, of Bradenton, Florida and formerly of Anderson, died Thursday, July 4, 2013 at Emeritus At Bradenton.

He was born August 9, 1921 in Estill County, Kentucky, a son of the late Vincent and Gertrude (Hulett) Edge.

Clarence owned and operated Meadowbrook Service Center for many years. He had a deep passion and in-depth knowledge of everything relating to automobiles. He attended Grace Holiness Church and enjoyed gardening and traveling in his RV, but most importantly, he loved being with family.

He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Barbara (Stanley) Edge; three children, Judy Stice of Moore, Oklahoma, Charles L. (wife: Rita) Abney of New Castle and Anna M. (husband: John) Broshears of Palmetto, FL; grandchildren, Nikki Abney of New Castle, D. Edge Roberts of Norfolk, VA, Emma Roberts of Milwaukee, WI, Chris (wife: Heather) Stice of Carmel and Greg (wife: Lisa) Stice of Tulsa, OK; and great-grandchildren, Canyon, Sierra, Clover, Mariah, Joshua and Katie Stice.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Harry and Charles Edge; three sisters, Cordelia Sylvester, Alice Smith and Ula Kreig.

Funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, July 13, 2013 at Grace Holiness Church, 3325 Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, Anderson, with Rev. Buddy Perry officiating. Burial will follow in Vinson Cemetery in Summitville. Friends may call from noon until time of service Saturday at the church.

Arrangements have been entrusted to the care of Sproles Family Funeral Home.

The Sproles family and staff are honored to serve the family of Clarence Edge.

“ I often stopped in at Mr. Edge's service station at the corner of 38th and Madison to buy candy and pop while I delivered my newspaper route. I remember him as a nice, friendly man. I think it was a Sinclair station back then.
