“ Sister Weddle is one who has been monumental in our lives. She made flowers for our wedding forty-four years ago. She has had us in her home and served us gracious meals many times. Most of all we think of her wonderful testimony and spiritual encouragement to everyone! We miss her! ”

“ Bro. & Sis. Weddle were a part of my life when my dad pastored on the KY PHC District . I will miss her Christmas card each Christmas. A few years ago, we became reacquainted and a beloved Christmas correspondence began. They were always a godly influence and now a cherished memory of wonderful camp.meeting days where I first met Jesus. ”

“ My heart aches with the Weddle family over the loss of Mom Weddle. I have wonderful memories of being at home with the Mom and Dad Weddle. They "adopted" me when I attended God's Bible School and roomed in the dorm with Debbie. We had so much fun playing games, laughing with each other and eating Mom's marvelous cooking. The Weddles will never be forgotten for the generous, loving and godly example they represented to this "Alabama daughter". Love and miss ya'll and wish I could be there.

“Mammy, you will never be forgotten. Thank you for being my second Mom and loving me as your own daughter. You and Pappy were kind, loving, giving -- the very best for all of us who needed a "home away from home!" I will meet you in the morning over there.
