

Frank James Slaven

May 1, 1950 - October 1, 2006

Frank James Slaven, 56, of New Castle, went home to be with the Lord Sunday afternoon, October 1, 2006. He was born May 1, 1950 in Monticello, Kentucky to Woodrow and Shirley (Eaton) Slaven.

Frank worked for the Henry County Highway Department and had been the street foreman for the New Castle Waste Water Treatment Plant. He was a member of Crossview Baptist Church and was a friend to many. He enjoyed fishing and fixing things but most of all he was a wonderful husband, brother, father and papaw.

He is survived by his wife, Rhonda; two daughters, Sherry (husband, Brent) Hammond and Sally Burris both of New Castle; Four grandchildren, Tyler and Taylor Hammond and Owen and Allicen Burris; A stepdaughter, Sara Bailey of Anderson; two stepsons, Matt and Scott Branscum both of New Castle; and a step-grandson, Ian Southerland of New Castle; three sisters, Ann (husband: Carroll) Brotzge of Mt. Washington, Kentucky, Linda (hus: Early) Hall of New Castle and Polly Evalee (hus: Michael) Brotzge of Monticello, Kentucky; and several nieces and a nephew.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Services will be held at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, October 5, 2006 in the Sproles Family Funeral Home with Reverend's Larrel Boling, Glen Harding and Early Hall officiating. Burial will follow in Green Hills Memory Gardens. Family and friends may call Wednesday from 4 – 9 p.m. at the funeral home.

“ To Sherry and Sally, I knew your dad since he was a little boy. I went to church with him, his dad and mom, and his sisters. They were faithful to the church. It did not matter what type of weather-the family was always at church, having to walk since his dad did not drive a car. Your aunt, Polly, has spoken so much about you to me that I feel that I know you all. God will give you strength to face your tomorrows. Our church,the Church of the Nazarene, has been praying for you and will continue to pray. We shall always treasure being a friend to your dad.

“ To Frankie's Family, I grew up with Frankie and his sisters, and always counted them as my best of friends. His Dad is one that I have always looked up to in his faith. My deepest thoughts and prayers are with his family, may GOD hold you and calm this storm.
