

Hazel Seabolt

July 4, 1954 - February 17, 2025

Hazel Seabolt, 70, of New Castle, went home to be with Jesus on the afternoon of Monday, February 17, 2025, surrounded by her loved ones.

She was born in New Castle, Indiana, on July 4, 1954, to the late Harold and Elva (Thompson) Downs.

Hazel married the love of her life, James E. Seabolt Sr., on February 7, 1975. Hazel's greatest joy in life was her children, grandchildren, and family. She worked in home health and hospice care before beginning her career with the state of Indiana at The Soldier's and Sailor's Home, where she worked until they closed in 2009. She continued her work for the state of Indiana at the Delaware County WorkOne office until retiring in 2014.

Hazel loved to cook for the people she cared about. She made the best Sloppy Joe's and fried potatoes. Hazel enjoyed going to the casino with her sister, Anna, and their special friend, Pam. Hazel was a special lady with a fun-loving personality and a true heart of gold. She never knew a stranger.

Those left to cherish Hazel's memory include her two sons Jerry (Christina) Seabolt of New Castle and Jim (Kim) Seabolt of Hiseville, KY; her daughter, Jody Wesner of New Castle; a special granddaughter, Alley (Austin) Criswell and a special grandson, Kyle Seabolt, both of New Castle; a son-in-law, David Wesner, grandchildren, Ray (Whitney) Seabolt, Crista Batey, Sam Seabolt, Levi Wesner, Karissa Seabolt, Jeri Wesner, and Jami Wesner; great-grandchildren, James, Harbor, Brooklyn, Averie, Carson, Bella-Faye, Aurora, and Melody; her brothers, Jerry Downs and Jim Downs; her sisters, Anna (Bill) Workman and Barbara Addison, and a special nephew, Matt Lyall.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, James; their daughter, Angie, and siblings, Robin, Billy, Curtis, Anita, and Beulah.

Funeral Services will be held at 1:00 pm Tuesday, February 25, 2025, at Sproles Family Funeral Home, with Pastor Paul Davis officiating. Burial will follow in South Mound Cemetery West Lawn Addition.

Friends may call from 4 – 8 pm at the funeral home on Monday.

You may offer the family a personal condolence at www.sprolesfamilycares.com.

The Sproles family and staff are honored to serve the family of Hazel Seabolt.

“ I will never, ever forget my baby sister!! Growing up, I would pretend she was my little girl as I was almost 7 when she was born. I would take care of her and Barbara when they were little and from then on until even before she passed away, I would always think that was my role. (I'm sure she didn't like me hovering at times, but I don't regret it. (lol) Loved her to the moon and back. So much fun we had going to the casino and usually stopping at White Castle afterwards. I would take her back home from Anderson, and we would laugh and have such a good time together along with her "casino buddy" Pam. Life will never be the same without you. Mom told me before she passed away to take care of her little girl and I pray I did that for her. You always put yourself before others. May you R.I.P. and I will see you again someday. Always in my heart forever.

“ I remember her getting paid and immediately taking me to McDonald's buying me a large everything lol. I remember laying with her and Averie in bed eating chips and she introduced me to mallo cups. They were “ so good “ I had to try one. I'll never forget everytime I came over she said “ are you hungry “ “ no mamaw im okay “ “ let me fix you something “ she always said “ “ okay some fried potatoes “ and she'd run to make them , and then when I was finished she'd say “ if you are still hungry I'll make you something else” lol. To mamaw we were her everything and to us she was our everything. To know my mamaw was to love her. She was the kindest , giving person I've ever known. There will never be another like my granny , my beautiful granny hazer. Rest well mamaw im glad you're at peace with papaw - Kari
