

Helen (Blaine) Dicioero

July 12, 1949 - October 27, 2018

Helen Dorothy (Blaine) Dicioero, 69, of New Castle, passed away on the morning of Saturday, October 27, 2018 at Rosebud Village in Richmond.

She was born July 12, 1949 in Brooklyn, New York, a daughter of the late Charles and Helen (Tice) Blaine.

Helen was a graduate of New Creations Bible College in Richmond where she earned her bachelor's degree. She also attended Oral Roberts University. Helen was an English Teacher and taught troubled teens. She loved to quilt and sew and was an excellence seamstress. She loved her boys and was a second mom to their friends. Helen lost her sight in 2008 and received her pilot dog, Luna, whom she loved and who served her so well. She received her training and certification through Pilot Dogs of Columbus, Ohio.

Those left to cherish Helen's memory include her husband, John Dicioero; two sons, Jason (wife: Donna) Brown of Goose Creek, SC and Jared Brown of Bloomington; a granddaughter, Taylor Brown of Winchester; two sisters, Maryann (husband: Rick) Groff of Lancaster, OH and Bonnie (husband: Bill) Wright of Quartzsite, AZ and many nieces and nephews.

Helen was preceded in death by a brother, Charles Edward Blaine and a nephew, Kenneth Wright.

Funeral services will be held at 1:00 pm Wednesday, October 31, 2018 at Sproles Family Funeral Home.

Friends may call from 11:00 am until the time of service Wednesday at the funeral home.

“ So sorry to hear about Helen's passing. My heart smiles when I recall the many adventures of stopping by when I was a teenager and scheming up something with Jared, and often Kenny and Jeff, when Helen would refer to me as "Eddie Haskill" for concocting some kind of plan and then acting so innocent. Wow, what a great, lasting memory!! Really going to miss your golden smile!! I am grateful that I got to know such a wonderful soul in this world. May God's love and grace surround you forever more.
