“ James is with out doubt one of the most kind hearted men I have ever known, he was one of my very favorite customers, not because he would exchange monies with my company, but because he was so very genuine, kind . James gave so much of his life to others, including or Country. James was a highly honored American Vetren and I never knew him to seek accolades ,he simply wanted to be your friend..James often sheared with me the joy that he finally found his true soulmate Jill , which he loved with all his heart ,I often withnessed his affection to her in such an appropriate way , he was so tender and loveing, she clearly was in his everyday dreams. He was a simple and just man and will surly be found when some of us arrive in heaven. I am so proud and honored to have known such a man.

Gods speed James

You will not be forgotten

“ Jimmy was the sweetest, most down to earth man, and had a gentle heart and soul. I will miss all the great times I had with him. When I would be out there working he always drove Jill crazy wanting to come help me work even though he wasn't able too. So she would breakdown and go get him in the vehicle so he could watch me work. He wouldn't take no for an answer he was a very stubborn man in a good way I would always laugh about. Cause he would drive Jill crazy until she would come get him. Lol I love memories like that with Jimmy. Jimmy will be missed very much. Rest in piece Jimmy. I love you and miss you very much Jimmy.
