

Joel Lee "Joe" Ramey

March 27, 1952 - April 20, 2025

Joel Lee "Joe" Ramey, 73, passed into eternity with Jesus on Easter Sunday, April 20, 2025, at Ascension St. Vincent Hospital in Indianapolis.

He was born on March 27, 1952, in New Castle, IN, a son of the late General Jackson and Vada (Collins) Ramey.

Joe was a graduate of Walter P. Chrysler High School in 1970. He worked at Chrysler Corporation, Modernfold, and the Pendleton Correctional Facility. Joe also owned J.L. Roofing before temporarily relocating to Charlotte, NC, in 1990. He returned to New Castle in 1995 before the passing of his father. Joe was born again through the blood of Jesus two years ago and had faithfully read his Bible since then. Pastor Don Raines and John Case of the Pilgrim Holiness Church faithfully visited him. Joe loved his family and friends. He greatly enjoyed coon hunting, trap shooting, and fishing throughout his life and was a big Dale Earnhardt Sr. fan.

Joe never met a stranger in his life and was always friendly with everyone he met. He enjoyed his stay at Spring Mill Meadows in Indianapolis, where he was greatly loved by the wonderful employees.

Those left to cherish Joe's memory include his daughter, Jade Lyles of Whitestown; his son, Joey (Theresa) Ramey of Greensfork; two grandsons, Jayden and Eli Lyles; a sister, Sharon Davis of New Castle; several nieces and nephews, and great-nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, Joe was preceded in death by his sisters, Donna Robertson and Patricia Osborn; his brother, Danny J. Ramey; a nephew, Scott Osborn, and all 13 of his aunts and uncles.

A celebration of life for Joe will be scheduled at a later date, after which he will be laid to rest beside his parents at Green Hills Memory Gardens.
