

John B. Rossman

February 21, 1947 - June 21, 2022

John B. Rossman, 75, originally of Emlenton, Pennsylvania, left his earthly body and met his Savior face to face in the early morning hours of Tuesday, June 21, 2022.

He was born on February 21, 1947, the son of Charles Herbert “Herb” and Ruth (Wade) Rossman.

He married his wife, Meredith “Mae” Fair, on September 2, 1966. Their four daughters, Denise, Diana, Veronica and Amy, along with their spouses, have blessed the family with 18 grandchildren and 19 great-grandchildren. John graduated from Covenant Foundation College in 1974 with a Bachelor of Theology degree. He was a private pilot, an airplane mechanic and enjoyed playing saxophone, wood working and carving. John was also an excellent artist. John was a people person. He loved people. He loved making people laugh and was always up for a good joke. One of his greatest thrills was teaching his grandchildren songs of his own creation that would make their parents cringe.

In 1969, John and Mae found Jesus at an Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Church in Butler, PA. This conversion experience would chart the course for their future. John’s passion was missions, and in December of 1976 he answered God’s call and moved his family to Lesotho, Africa, where they served as missionaries to the African people. John later served in the pastoral role to various churches across the United States.
