

Juan Carlos Alvarado Tinoco

August 21, 1982 - November 3, 2023

Juan Carlos Alvarado Tinoco, 41, of Fort Wayne, Indiana, passed away unexpectedly on Friday, November 3, 2023, at Parkview Regional Medical Center.

Carlos was born on August 21, 1982 in Moroleon, Guanajuato, Mexico, a son of Lorenzo Alvarado Cortes and Ma. Guadalupe Tinoco De Alvarado.

Carlos grew up in Guanajuato, Mexico. He followed his sisters to the United States, where he spent his last 21 years. He was a dedicated employee of Don Hall's Hollywood Drive-In in Fort Wayne for 15 years. It was at Hall's where he met his beloved wife of 11 years, Christina. Carlos was a devoted provider and loved his stepchildren and family here and in Mexico. Carlos was well known for his unique personality and style. He wore his character in his collection of clothing, including baseball hats, t-shirts, and suits. He will be greatly loved and missed by all who know him.

Those left to cherish Carlos's memory include his wife, Christina, of Fort Wayne; his mother, Ma. Guadalupe Tinoco, a brother, José Alvarado Tinoco (wife: San Guerrero); two sisters, Maria Alvarado Tinoco and Ana Alvarado Tinoco, all of Moroleon, Mexico; his stepchildren, Danielle, Jesse, and Layla Burgess all of Fort Wayne. Carlos was the "Funcle" to nephews, Brayan Alvarado, Eduardo Santiago, and Jonathan Lopez, all of Fort Wayne, his newborn nephew, Angel Alvarado and nieces, Ariana and Jessica Hernandez, Mariela Santiago, Arely Alvarado, and Maria Jose Alvarado. He is also survived by many other relatives and close friends including, Earla Printup and Francisco (Pam) Suarez.

In addition to his father, Carlos was recently preceded in death by his grandfather, Luis Tinoco Lopez, and by an uncle, Arturo Tinoco.

Funeral services are pending at this time and will be posted when available. The burial will take place in Panteon Jardines Del Recuerdo in Moroleon, Guanajuata, Mexico.
