“ I am so thankful to have had Kathy in my life and that many memories of my girls growing up she was a big part of. Im still in shock and disbelief but so happy to have seen her last Tuesday to let her know how thankful I was to her for everything. She was an amazing woman and she will be missed dearly.

“ It is very hard to believe that Kathy is gone from this earth, but just knowing that she will not suffer anymore makes it more bearable. I am so glad I got to be there with her during the wedding vow renewal ceremony. I know she loved Jeff and really wanted that. Praying that God will ease the hurt the family is feeling right now.

“ We will always remember the good times we shared with Mom. Larry remembers the trip that they took to the Cincinnati Zoo where they enjoyed seeing the animals together. And the trip that Jeff, Kathy and him took to the Smoky Mountains. Tina remembers all the times that her and Kathy picked on Larry and the fun talks they shared.
