“ One of my fondest memories of Bro. States was the Tri-County Camp in Hartford City, IN ('84, I THINK). He did the preaching and my wife, Marilyn, and I did the singing. What WONDERFUL memories! Bro. States was a dear & precious brother-in-Christ. Please accept our sincerest sympathies. God is STILL "Working Out His Purpose!"

“ I can recall the first time I met Bro States at the WHC in LaJunta, CO, in 1960. His powerful preaching and annointed singing was such a blessing and inspiration to this young heart at that time and never changed over the years. I never saw him display anything but a Christian example. I know he will be missed but he has made the landing!
Who can forget his singing of "Til the Storm Passes by"?

“ I looked up to Bro. States as a fatherly Christian and model for us all. I loved to hear him sing “God Is Working Out His Purpose”. The ranks are thinning among the elderly but the great host awaiting us is getting larger.

“ Have some great and wonderful memories of Bro. & Sis. States and the fact that they were close friends with my grandparents, the Sneeds, and lived in our area and attended my home church when home from meetings. Grandma said she wished she could have come to the funeral home, but she is caring for Grandpa. May your family feel the arms of Jesus around you during this time.

“ Jerry remembers many fond times with Bro. States, and we both send our deepest sympathy to all of his family. We know that this is a difficult time, as we want to keep our loved ones with us, but oh the joy he has now, being with the Lord!!! Jerry would have wanted to be there, with you, but circumstances kept him from coming, but you will be in our thoughts and prayers. Jerry & Diane
