

Louise Mathews

March 9, 1927 - January 22, 2008

Opal "Louise" Mathews, 80, of New Castle, went home to be with the Lord Tuesday, January 22, 2008 in Henry County Hospital following a brief illness. Louise was born March 9, 1927 in Olive Hill, KY a daughter of the late Fred and Edith (Garvin) Roberts.

She was a longtime member of the Northside Church of God and more recently Ninth Street Church of God. She married William R. "Dick" Mathews on February 18, 1950. She worked at Dolly Madison Bakery for 25 years and also sold Avon for many years. She was a loving and caring wife, mother and grandmother and she was greatly loved by all her family.

She is survived by two children, Pam (husband: Sam) Hess of Carmel and Fred (wife: Lana) Mathews of New Castle; two grandchildren, Kristin Hess of Fishers and Erica Mathews of New Castle; two step-grandsons, O.B. Caudle of Byrdstown, TN and Chad Caudle of Scottsdale, AZ; five great grandsons, Dylan, Evan, Brett, Drew, and Dane Caudle; a sister, Eulane "Jackie" Slettvet of New Castle and several nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents she was preceded in death by her husband, Dick Mathews in 1989 and a brother, Garry Roberts.

Services will be 1:00 p.m. Friday, January 25, 2008 at the Northside Church of God on North 14th Street with Rev. Elwood Evans officiating. Burial will follow in Green Hills Memory Gardens.

Friends may call Thursday from 4 – 8 p.m. at Sproles Family Funeral Home and one hour prior to the service at the church. You may send a personal condolence to the family at www.sprolesfamilycares.com.

“ In the brief time that I got to know your mother, and assist in her care, I feel so blessed to have known her. No matter how she felt, she always had a smile and was so pleasant. She was a beautiful person, and please take comfort in knowing that she is in a beautiful place. She will always be with you! My thoughts and prayers, Linda Turner (Resident Assistant at The Woodlands)
