

Makayla Larise Nicole Scott

May 12, 2000 - January 17, 2012

Makayla Larise Nicole Scott, 11, of New Castle, went home to be with the Lord Tuesday, January 17, 2012 at her home following a courageous battle with cancer.

She was born May 12, 2000 in New Castle, a daughter of Gary L. and Mandi (Harper) Scott.

Makayla would have been a sixth grader at Eastwood Elementary. She was a caring child who cared for others more than herself. She loved going to church at the Pilgrim Holiness Church and Foursquare Church. She loved to do beading and make jewelry. Makayla was a loving daughter and sister.

In addition to her parents, she is survived by, a brother, Austin Kyle Gage Scott and a sister, Maquoia Neveah Dashay Scott both of New Castle; maternal grandmother, Nina Draper of Indianapolis; maternal grandfather, Ronald Harper of Rushville; paternal grandmother, Vickie Kirk of Indianapolis; maternal great-grandmother, Ruth Harper of Rushville; paternal great-grandmother, Emma Legg and paternal great-great-grandmother, Annie Mae Smith both of Indianapolis; several aunts, uncles and cousins.

She was preceded in death by her maternal great-grandfather, Clarence Harper and maternal great-grandmother, Adah McFatridge.

Funeral service will be held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, January 21, 2012 at Pilgrim Holiness Church with Pastors Don Raines and Jim Becker officiating.

Friends may call from 4 – 8 p.m. Friday at Sproles Family Funeral Home.

You may send the family a personal condolence at www.sprolesfamilycares.co

“ What a treasure God entrusted to us on May 12, 2000. A tiny, dark eyed little doll..full of wonder and interested in everything she saw. We grew to love you more with each chuckle; with each accomplishment. You brought joy and happiness into our lives and didn't even know you were doing it! How special I feel to have been blessed to be your Nana...your Porcelain Doll..and the twist was that you taught me so much..I was supposed to be the teacher!! You opened up my eyes to alot of things in this world...and I will always be grateful for you my precious "Petunia". I'd say "rest easy" but you've rested enough...run, play, sing, dance, live your life in Heaven as you wanted to here on earth...Makayla Style!! I LOVE YOU MY BABY!! Nana

“ From Deaconess Erika R. Corbin, of the Northside New Era Baptist Church, Indianapolis, IN, please accept my sincerest expression of sympathy for your family in regards to your loss. I know that God is building a garden of flowers in Heaven with sweet souls such as Makayla and my mother, Barbara Carter who homegoing services were on the same day. I will pray for Michelle Kirk and family for God's healing, strength and comfort as only He understands what we bear during such a time as this. God will wipe all tears away! Be Encouraged and Blessed! Love and prayers, Sis. Erika Corbin

“ Dear Ruth and Ron. I am so sorry to hear the news about your grand and great grand-daughter Makayla. My heart goes out to you and to all her family. Ron and Ruth, I have known you a long time and felt I needed to share in your sorrow. I wish to share a little poem with you. I find that it gives some comfort and hope that it does for you as well.

*"Shed not for her the bitter tear, nor give the heart to vain regret. Tis but the casket that lies here, the gem that filled it sparkles yet"
May the warm loving arms of our Lord wrap her in warmth and give comfort to your hearts...*
