“ It's been many years since I last saw Margaret and Dick. We all grew up in Decatur IN and, since I didn't have a car, I would ride with them back and forth to IU. They were a joy to be around and treated me like a younger brother. Margaret was a school mate of my older sister, Sunya, and she spent many an evening at our house, I vividly remember Margaret and my sisters and I sitting around our kitchen table on New Year's Eve and welcoming in the New Year 1945. They were both wonderful friends and I regret that we lost contact over the years. My heartfelt condolences go out to their family.

“ Mrs. Hakes was a huge blessing to all who knew her and even now, those who will never have that opportunity, through the love she bestowed upon so many lucky children with whom she shared her extroidnary heart and talents.
My condolences to her family and friends, she will be sorely missed.
