“ I met Margaret many years ago through her daughter Dana Perdue. I have a found memory of what she did for me. I was getting married and a flower shop here in town had made my bouquet unfortunately they did a shotty job. Luckily for me when she saw the bouquet she had a fit!! Anyone that knows Margaret also knows the talent she has when it comes to making flower arrangements, she took that bouquet and rearranged what was there plus added more beautiful flowers and baby's breath and ribbon, it was simply gorgeous when she got done with it and I was so proud to carry my bouquet of flowers down the aisle to meet my husband. I was blessed to know Margaret and will miss her but I know she is in heaven now smiling with Jesus her journey isn't over..it has just begun.
