“ I will always remember Mark as adoring and loving of his family, a good and true husband, father, and grandfather. His laugh was contagious, and he shared smiles freely. My heart breaks for Joyce, Troy, JoEll, and Amy, as well as all the grands. He was so proud of all of you. I pray that God gives you comfort in the difficult & sad days ahead, and peace beyond measure. God bless you all, always. Love, Penny.

I am sorry for the Gorman family and their loss of their loved one Mark. I have happy memories of spending time during childhood years with the Gorman family. They were a happy family and a joy to be around. I did not know the older children but did get to know Barbara, Anita, Kathy, Robert and Mark and their parents. I will remember Mark and his family in my prayers. Love, Alice
