“ She was our pastor's wife when the boys were young. She was a very kind and talented woman. Our church family loved them deeply and were saddened when their time at Portage, Pa. ended and they moved on. I am sure we all carry fond memories of the time she (and her family) enriched our lives in the hills of Pennsylvania!

“ Mary was my pastor's wife when I was in my early twenties. She played the organ for the church services and I joined her at the piano. She also played the organ at my wedding. Time separated us, but it also brought us back together again in Indy about 19 years ago. It was a joy to be reconnected. Just a few weeks before she left us I was privileged to visit her, pray with her, and give her a back massage until she fell asleep. Precious lady! My condolences to her family. May God bring you comfort for the coming days.
