“ When he was asleep, Gail and I would put make up or paint his nails, wake him up and send him to the store and not tell him what we did. The store clerk got used to it as we did it multiple times.

“ *He was a great step Dad. He was always there when we needed him. I loved living on dairy farms when I was little. We had Calfs that we would feed.
He will be so missed. We Love You Mike.*
