“ I served with Charlie (as we called him) during our time in Naval F4 squadron VF74. He always had a quick sense of humor and I will always remember our time together. He was a strong moral Christian that I admired about him. My condolences to all of you. Rest in the arms of the Lord, Charlie.

“ Mike was part of the family at Memorial Baptist Church in New Castle. We loved seeing him at church and at all of our get togethers. We especially loved sharing meals with him at our monthly Fellowship Meals at various restaurants. He will forever hold a piece of our hearts. He's at rest now, but always in our memories.
