“ Dear Jane, You lost a husband and I lost a brother. My heart goes out for you, for you have been a loving wife and a good wife. Gary and I treasures the memories we have shared together, especially the vacations we took together and just sitting around talking and playing games. I know your heart must feel empty now, for mine does and so does Gary's. I am trusting in God that he will heal all of our hearts and souls with time. I know Junior [Morton] will be sorely missed by everyone, especially the way he loved to play pranks on people. He loved people and he has touched many lives, I thank God I will see him again, and perhaps I am being selfish, but I sure do miss not having him here now. Remember we love you like a sister and we will be praying for you. Love and Prayers, Ramona & Gary
