“ Kay will always be a part of my Indiana memories. She took me into her heart and home. I will always be greatful for Chili and RC Cola something a northern girl knew nothing about. Newspaper clippings about the world and Elvis were things I learned about from Kay. Brown County camping in a pop up that was home built what great times. The Shady Stevens days us two music wives together. To those who loved her, know this she will never be forgotten for she helped to create great memories in many lives.
