“ Tony was a kind and caring person. He will be missed. Praying for his siblings and family that God will comfort them.

Sad that Tony is gone but there is joy knowing he is living in a mansion not built by man. He is rejoicing around the great white throne and walking beside the River of Life. He has no more sadness no more pain, and doesn't have to feel like he is being rejected anymore!

“ It is a mixture of sadness and joy for Tony and the family. Sad for the vacancy he is leaving, but joy that he is now at rest, free from the struggle he has been through. Love & prayers, from Phyllis Turner
