“She’s been my best friend; my biggest support; my finest example; and, my strongest rock. I will forever cherish the numerous times over the past several weeks and months of her life when she’d reiterate to me: “I love you Kalan and I always will”. It’s been the honor of my life to be able to be by your side these past few years momma and to help give you the best quality of life that I possibly could and to advocate on your behalf. Our love is inseparable. She’s gone... but not for long. There will be a happy reunion day. I’d been feeling for some time... that she could pass on Mother’s Day... the significance of that and how I might feel about it, but it didn’t take me too long to warm up to the idea, because she was mom, first. Sure enough, God took her home on Mother’s Day. I cannot think of a more fitting gift for her on Mother’s Day than Gods gift of her to me and my gift to Him of her. I love you momma! I’ll see you again, soon!

“ (Written May 3, 2025 and placed inside Mom's Mother's Day card)

Dear Mom,

As I sit here in keen awareness that this Mother's Day is likely our last one together on this side of Heaven, I am overcome with grief, fear, a flood of memories, and profound sadness.....and yet joy in the knowledge that you are mere inches from the most important touchdown of the human experience! This metaphor fails to fully articulate the magnitude of this achievement, but rest assured you have played this game of life in such a way that I have no doubt you are about to hear the most beautiful celebration music amidst a raucous cheer of Heavenly Angels and The Omnipotent, Omnipresent, Omniscient Referee announcing: "Paulette, well done, good and faithful servant: you have been faithful over a few things, I will make you ruler over many things: now enter into the joy of thy Lord." (Matthew 25:21)

Mom, you have played this game of life, not perfectly, but faithfully committed to the One who spoke this world into existence and holds it in the palm of His Almighty hand. You are a hero, you are amazing, you are perfectly worthy of my love and admiration, and you have it!

Literally, while writing this, the song Goodness of God came on. I cannot say it any better than these lyrics, and I am certain this would be your testimony today, if only you could:

*I love You, Lord
For Your mercy never fails me
All my days, I've been held in Your hands
From the moment that I wake up
Until I lay my head
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God*

*And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good*

*With every breath that I am able
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God*

*I love Your voice
You have led me through the fire
In the darkest night
You are close like no other
I've known You as a Father
I've known You as a Friend
And I have lived in the goodness of God*

*And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh, I will sing of the goodness of God*

*'Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
With my life laid down, I'm surrendered now
I give You everything
'Cause Your goodness is running after, it's running after me*

*Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
Your goodness is running after, it's running after me
With my life laid down, I'm surrendered now
I give You everything
'Cause Your goodness is running after
It keeps running after me*

*And all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good
With every breath that I am able
Oh, I'm gonna sing of the goodness of God
I'm gonna sing, I'm gonna sing*

*'Cause all my life You have been faithful
And all my life You have been so, so good*

*With every breath that I am able
Oh, I'm gonna sing of the goodness of God
Oh, I'm gonna sing of the goodness of God*

Until I see you again Mom; Thinking of you with my deepest love,

Kevin (and Anita)
