“ I could never express the love in my heart, for this Precious Angel. Mother, thank you for All the encouragement and motivation that you have bestowed within me. Always supportive and pushing me to write my music in a manner to Always Glorify God. I will Always cherish those moments and especially the many precious hugs and laughter we've shared over the years. Heaven is much sweeter, now that you are there....

“ Pauline Was the Elder of our her Church where I attend. Our Pastor Paul Lawson,his wife Kay and the rest of the congregation called her Mother. Oh what a amazing precious anointed woman of GOD she still is alive now in heaven walking the streets of Gold. Mother gave each one of us a word to always remember the memories of her are embedded in my heart as well as the congregation. She stayed faithful to GOD and she finished her race. If I could only be a 1/4 of the woman she was. She had many stories of her missionary in Haiti and Kenya. Our hearts are heavy because we won't see her precious smile and sweet hug when we walk into church and when she stands up and said GOD has a word for you. But we know she is rejoicing with JESUS and very much alive! You are miss Mother and we all love you so much❤️
