“ I only knew Roberta for a few years but we really enjoyed our talks while we sat and watched our young men bowl on Saturday mornings. I will miss seeing her as I am sure all of her friends will when Saturday's come around again. I have the deepest sympathy for Donald and Curtis and want them both to know they are in my prayers at this time of their loss. Just know that she is now in the hands of the Greatest Caregiver of all. I will miss you, Roberta. May God bless you and your family.
