“ My sincere sympathy to your family in the loss of your loved one. I played bridge in recent years with Sandy and what a nice person, smiling, welcoming, always proud of her children and grandchildren. I so enjoyed her friendship and happy moments we shared. I will miss her. May God be near to her family. Sincerely Lynn Meier

“ So very sorry to hear of your mother's passing. Enjoyed her pretty smile years ago at church, and when I would occasionally see her in the community. I know you all take comfort that she and your father are now together again. Prayers for your family.

“ I just wanted to let you know how much Mrs. Kenner meant to me. She was the librarian while I attended Westwood Elementary. I was an avid reader and loved books so much that to punish me my parents would "ground" me from the library. Mrs. Kenner always was there to answer my questions and help me find the most interesting books. She seemed to know just what I needed. I owe my love of classic literature in a part to this wonderful and warm lady.
