“ That time you told me to stick my fingers in the oil to see if it was ready. You busted out laughing and said 'No, don't do that!!' when almost stuck my fingers in it to see. Then finding Jennifer was your daughter. I'm so glad your pain free now.

“ So many memories of growing up with Sharon. One memory is when her mom put us in charge of "watching" the pineapple upside down cake while she ran to town. We decided to go outside while it baked. Needless to say, it burned so we took it out of the pan and iced it...like I said that is only one of many. I love you my forever friend. Pam (or as Dewayne called me. PING)
