“ I spent a lot of time with Susie and Marilyn from 9th grade until I left New Castle. We cried, laughed, and got into mischief together. Their friendship meant so much to me. I loved Susie's laugh and beautiful smile. They always welcomed me with open arms. I have thought of her many times and wish I had stayed in better contact with the family. I moved to Colorado and did meet Susie's uncle and had lunch with her aunt. They updated me on the family. May you rest in peace my dear friend. Heaven has another angel. Debra Cooney Schofield
