

Tammy Eleanor Johnson

August 15, 1958 - September 20, 2025

Tammy Eleanor (Rains) Johnson, 67, of New Castle, passed away on the afternoon of Saturday, September 20, 2025, at IU Health Methodist Hospital.

She was born on August 15, 1958, in New Castle, Indiana, and was raised by her maternal grandmother, Margie (Tuggle) York. Tammy attended Walter P. Chrysler Memorial High School, where she was active in gymnastics and cheerleading, and graduated with the class of 1976.

Tammy is survived by her husband of 35 years, Steven J. Johnson; her son, Mick Johnson; grandchildren, Jeremiah Johnson and Dixie Johnson; and her brother, David G. York.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Genevieve York and Tom Rains; her grandparents, Margie (Tuggle) York and Lester York.

She had a lifelong love of music, with a special fondness for Eric Clapton. One of her favorite songs, Wonderful Tonight, reflected her gentle spirit and love for life. Tammy also cherished time with her family and especially treasured her role as Grandma to Jeremiah and Dixie.

There are no services planned at this time.

“ I remember spending the night at my Aunt Marjorie's and she would teach tammy and I how to play the piano. And later when we became teenagers, Tammy was the only cheerleader that could do back flips all the way down the court. I was in awe watching her. I really wish we could of stayed in touch. Rest in peace Tammy
