“ Warren was in the Navy, my Father was in the Army same time frame. We spoke several times at the store where I worked. When my niece died I needed a cabinet with shelves for her and my play dishes when we were both small. I love it! It is still on my wall. So beautiful and precious to me! 💙

“ I first met Warren and Betty when they lived on 22nd street and I was their maillady for several years... Last year I got to know them again at ADDISON PLACE where my mother is living now. I always enjoyed seeing him and Betty while visiting my Mother. He will be missed by many people whose hearts he touch. I am so sorry Betty and your family. Love and prayers. Dana Ellison

“ I have lived away from Indiana for the past 50 years, so was not able to see my dear Uncle Warren and Aunt Betty often. The memories, however, are wonderful. My husband and and our two teenaged (at the time) daughters happened to be visiting Aunt Pauline in Colorado at the same time Warren and Betty were there. Warren, Betty, and Pauline taught Eucher to our girls, with much laughter and joy. Pauline even taught them to cheat! Our girls Megan and Caty have always remembered that visit with fondness and affection.

Warren was the brother most like my Dad - so outgoing, loving, non-judgmental and funny! And, of course, they looked very much alike. We have watched Warren grow old, knowing just what Howard would have looked like in his eighties and nineties. Just knowing he was still out there in the world has been a great comfort to me. It is also very comforting to know he had such a large and loving extended family. You will all miss him every day. May the memories bring you peace and comfort! Know how much and how widely he was loved and that we all share your grief and send our love!

“ I remember one year at our family reunion when our young son, Clint came up to Warren thinking he was his grandpa, looked confused and said “so many Grandpas”! Their were four brothers and they were all standing in a circle talking about the weather!

*Dear Betty and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. Our grief is not the same as that of one who does not know God. John always thought so much of the Hill family and though I did not know you all as well as he did I send you all sympathy and prayers. He is resting in God's arms.
Sincerely*
