“ I did not know Wayne very long having met him in 2016 after moving to Modoc! We it seemed immediately took a liking to one another! We often chatted out of doors as we shared the same neighbor hood and lived 2 doors down from one another! He was a great guy to chat with and he often shared stories with me of his time in KY and his moving to Indiana! I haves missed chatting with Wayne these past months and am saddened by his passing! I am truly saddened by your loss!

“ I remember he used to come see dad every time he came in. He always had lots of stories to tell us and it always involved in laughter. I told him bout how I used to drive fast and he would tell me bout racing on the interstate and just laughed he had a ball and I loved hearing him. He was definitely a joy to be around for sure. Im gonna miss your visits to see dad uncle Wayne but you are in a much better place than we are. Sincerely with all my love Trish Duvall

“ Thank God for men like Wayne. Always remember Wayne and Kenny Thacker stories, still not sure how true most of them were, but they sure made us laugh. Wayne opened his house in Kentucky to my family several times during boating season- however i must admit- I had to unplug all the night lights Nancy had in the house. They are not made like Wayne much anymore. RIP ole friend.
