

William V. Duncan

March 17, 1965 - January 1, 2011

William V. Duncan, 45, of Spiceland, died Saturday, January 1, 2011 in his home following a lengthy illness.

He was born March 17, 1965 in Fort Sam Houston, Texas, a son of the late William Hobart Duncan and Patricia Kathleen (Jeffery) Duncan.

William served in the U.S. Army and was stationed in Grenada. He enjoyed the outdoors and spending time with his grandson Braxton. He also enjoyed politics.

He is survived by his wife, Mary R. (Pierce) Duncan; two step-children, Tricia (husband: Scott) Frisbie of Straughn and Jeffery S. Guffey of Albany, KY; three step-grandchildren, Braxton, Josh and Jared; three sisters, Pame Little of Spiceland, Kim Saunders of New Castle and Sandra Preston of West Virginia; a brother, Timothy Duncan of Cape Coral, FL; his grandmother, Ruthanna Jeffery of Knightstown and several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his grandfather, Victor Jeffery and his grandmother Hopkins.

A Memorial service will held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday, January 8, 2011 at Spiceland Church of the Nazarene with Pastors Mark Herbkersman and Allen Southerland officiating.

Friends may call Saturday from noon until the time of the service at the church.
