God was ready for Bill but the rest of us weren't ready for him to leave. Isn't that the crazy way life is? We met Bill through our sweet friend Laura. Bill was always fun to talk to, joke around with and talk crap with. He had such a fun personality. We had many lunches together, celebrated holidays and events whenever we could. Living in Arizona didn't let us see each other too much, but when we did it was a lot of fun. See you in Heaven Bill. Much love to all his friends and family.
