

Wilma Jean Pierce

August 27, 1942 - August 12, 2013

Wilma Jean Pierce, 70, of Spiceland, went home to be with the Lord, Monday, August 12, 2013 at her home surrounded by her loving family.

She was born August 27, 1942 in Monticello, Kentucky, a daughter of the late Johnnie and Lovie (Huckaby) Hucceby.

Wilma attended schools in Spiceland and New Castle. A life-long homemaker, Wilma enjoyed attending the Allegheny Wesleyan Methodist Church in Dublin with her family and testifying to what God had done for her. She enjoyed making crafts, cooking, baking, fishing, gardening and harvesting the food from her garden. She retired from Chrysler Corporation after 11 years of service. Wilma was a wonderful wife to her husband, Charley, as well as a wonderful mother to Lisa and Kurt and cherished her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband of almost 52 years, Charley Pierce; a son, Kurt (wife: Laura) Pierce of New Castle; a daughter, Lisa Pierce of Spiceland; three grandchildren, Kyle Pierce of Spiceland, Kim (husband: David) Merchand of New Castle and Ashley Ingram of New Castle and six great-grandchildren, Katie Dawn, Drake Douglas, Alexis Grace, Miley Nichole, Ethan Scott and Keyan Xander.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by, an infant son, Tony Allen Pierce and two sisters, Wanda Hucceby and Betty Hucceby.

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m. Friday, August 16, 2013 at Sproles Family Funeral Home with Rev. Dale Reynolds officiating. Burial will follow in South Mound Cemetery West Lawn Addition.

Friends may call from 4-8 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

The family wishes to thank Ball Hospice for their extra special care and to Dr. Joy Stone for being more than a doctor, she was also a Christian friend. Also, special thanks to Dr. Chandler Park for being a great doctor who always offered us hope and encouragement.

“Our hearts are perfect because you are inside.” You will be sadly missed, but not forgotten.

Friends may send the family a personal condolence at www.sprolesfamilycare.com.

Sproles Family Funeral Home is honored to serve the family of Wilma Pierce.
